(FV Newswire) December 29, 2009 -- Nan Desu Kan, the premiere anime convention of the Rockies, will celebrate the Year of the Tiger with NDK NYE, a New Year's Eve Costume Ball, on Dec. 31, 2009 at the Marriott Denver Tech Center. Tickets are only $15 and hotel rooms begin at $69. Pre-registration is available online at www.ndkdenver.org through Dec. 27. Doors open at 8 p.m.

"New Year's is the biggest holiday in Japan and NDK NYE is the most affordable hotel party in Denver," said Amanda Liebermann, NDK Executive Director. "We are so excited to present this new and fun event to the anime community. The first 100 hotel guests have a chance to win a free stay!"

NDK NYE will feature a fusion of Japanese cultural activities and refined anime cosplay elegance in an all ages atmosphere, featuring a variety of music by DJ Bullock, door prizes, games, and a balloon drop at midnight. Food and drinks will be available for purchase and photo services will be offered by NDK convention photographer Chris Gilstrap of CG Photography.

During this event, attendees will have the opportunity to purchase exclusive Japanese fortunes (omikujii). Proceeds will benefit the Japan America Society of Colorado, which promotes understanding of the arts, literature, cultural ideals and aspirations of the Japanese and American people.
